

Social Sharing Guidelines

Our business model is based on person-to-person selling—leveraging the power of word of mouth.

While technology keeps changing, people sharing their enthusiasm for Nu Skin will continue.

Nu Skin supports and will continue to support active participation in social media. As a Brand Affiliate, you represent Nu Skin. It is imperative for social media use to be consistent with Nu Skin's image and brand standards and policies.

TO BOTH PROTECT AND ENHANCE NU SKIN'S REPUTATION WHEN USING SOCIAL MEDIA, FOLLOW THESE BASIC GUIDELINES AS WELL AS OUR DETAILED POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. PLEASE ONLY POST AND ENGAGE WITH CONTENT THAT MEETS THESE GUIDELINES.

KEY PRINCIPLES ARE THE SAME— NO MATTER THE PLATFORM

TODAY'S AUDIENCES CAN BE SKEPTICAL ABOUT PRODUCT CLAIMS, OPPORTUNITY CLAIMS, THE DIRECT SELLING INDUSTRY AS A WHOLE, AND THEIR ABILITY TO THRIVE IN THIS BUSINESS MODEL.

KEEP THEIR PERSPECTIVE IN MIND WHEN COMMUNICATING WITH THEM.

BECAUSE THEY OFTEN THINK MESSAGES ARE...

ALWAYS TAKE CARE TO...

“Too good to be true”

KEEP IT REAL
be straightforward
and don't overstate

“Too little information”

BACK IT UP
Provide specifics that alleviate concerns

“Too much too soon”

EASE THEM IN
Meet your audience
where they are today

SOCIAL SHARING DOs AND DONTs

DO: share positive personal experiences, product science, and testimonials that are consistent with approved claims

DO: talk about having fun with the business and the success that can come through hard work and patience

DO: talk about Velocity – Nu Skin’s competitive and innovative sales performance plan

DO: share photos and videos regarding your personal experience at Nu Skin success trips and events

DO: direct customers to your personal selling site or a company selling platform

DO: disclose your relationship with Nu Skin as a Brand Affiliate, e.g. #ad, #sponsored, #NSbrandaffiliate, #affiliate

DON'T: claim or imply that our products treat, cure, or prevent any disease, or that the product helped cure your own ailment – even if true

DON'T: make lifestyle or income claims that exceed those of the average Brand Affiliate or are false or misleading

DON'T: offer or imply any guarantee of success or income, including guarantees related to following a system or providing hypothetical earnings

DON'T: make comparisons related to specific competitors, products, or business opportunities

DON'T: state or imply that company sponsored success trips or other incentives are “free” or easy to achieve

DON'T: promote the products using contests, raffles, sweepstakes, or games of chance

SOCIAL SHARING FAQ

Q: Why am I only allowed to share average results about the products and opportunity?

A: Because others may decide to purchase products or join the business based on the experiences you share with them, it's important to make sure prospects have accurate information and realistic expectations. Although many Brand Affiliates and customers have experienced extraordinary results, many have not. Because of this, all representations must be consistent with approved product benefits and average compensation figures. Just because something is true doesn't mean you can say it.

Q: Do I need to use a disclaimer when talking about income/lifestyle potential?

A: Yes. Please see the Opportunity Testimonial Guidelines for required disclaimers and when to use them.

Q: Why do I need to use a disclaimer when talking about success trips?

A: Because incentives you receive from Nu Skin (including trips) are considered compensation, it's important to provide the right context to avoid confusion as to the number of Brand Affiliates who actually earned them. When talking about success trip qualification, this disclaimer must be used: "In the US, approximately 1.2% of average Active Brand Affiliates qualified for an incentive trip during 2020."

Q: Why do I have to disclose that I am a Brand Affiliate?

A: FTC guidelines state that disclosure needs to be given whenever a company provides compensation. Disclosure must be clear, prominent, and in immediate proximity to the post, not in a general "about" section, overwhelmed by other content/text, or in a hyperlink. For individual social media posts, use hashtags to disclose your relationship with Nu Skin (e.g., #ad, #paidad, #sponsored, #NSbrandaffiliate, #affiliate).

Q: How does the return policy work with social selling?

A: All Brand Affiliates who choose to use social media platforms must disclose to customers and adhere to Nu Skin's product refund and exchange policy for retail customers. The Company reserves the right to refund retail customers, in its sole discretion, if it determines that its refund/exchange policies have not been followed, and bonus commission deductions will be withheld from the selling Brand Affiliate.

Q: Why can't I sell on online marketplaces (Facebook Marketplace, eBay, Amazon, Etsy, etc.)?

A: The Company believes the use of social media is simply an extension of the one-to-one direct selling relationship. Products promoted in brick and mortar stores and online marketplace sites are just the opposite and do not support interaction with the customer.

Q: Am I allowed to show product names on social media platforms and selling sites?

A: Company tradenames, product names, and Company pictures may be used in individual posts. Company tradenames, product names, or logos cannot be used when naming or branding a Brand Affiliate's social media platform or selling site.

Q: Can I publicly share product prices, discounts and promotions?

A: Although product prices can be included on your selling site, you may not promote or share specific pricing or discounts on social media. You may, however, highlight promotions on your social media pages (for example, "Great holiday promotion now - see my selling site for more details", "Half-off special promo for the month of December! Click here to check out my site").

Q. Can I promote my business on any social media platform?

A. In addition to complying with Nu Skin's policies and guidelines, you must follow any platform-specific policies, rules, and guidelines. Keep in mind that some platforms restrict the type of content that can be posted (for example, Pinterest doesn't allow advertisements related to multilevel marketing models or content regarding weight loss products), whereas other platforms, such as TikTok and WhatsApp for Business, have prohibited all multilevel marketing related activities from their platforms.
